By HENRY V. KING.

Milkmaid, the three-year-old filly benging to Commander J. K. L. Ross, is obably the best filly of the year. This faughter of Peep o' Day and Nell Olin howed her worth yesterday afternoon a the Aqueduct track when she sped home an easy victor of the Gazelle Handicap. the feature of the card. In scoring her ry she defeated seven of the best e away from five to nineteen pounds by the scale to her opponents and 'breezed' home six lengths in front. J. Byer's aged mare Columbins took sec-ond place and Rose D'Or was third.

Despite an exceptionally strong wind which blew up the long homestretch Milkmaid stepped over the one mile and a sixteenth course in 1:45, only fourthe of a second behind the track rec ung up by R. T. Wilsons Corn Tasbarrier with her field, but in the run he backstretch she was outrun by ing Shower, Carpet Sweeper and dages on Carpet Sweeper became loose and dragged along the ground. Entering the homestretch Passing Shower began to weaken and so did Rose D'Or. While they were staggering from the effects of the fast early pace and the strong wind Mikmaid came along from fourth place, went to the front and won eased up.

Columbine ran a remarkable race. She was shut off immediately after the start band knocked back to last place. Al

Bank Fishermen Capture Blues.

"Bluefish breaking!" cried Captain Bert as the Josephine of Sheepshead Bay was on her way home on Sunday from the deep sea grounds. "Get out the lines and squids," the captain continued and every man who had the tackle began trolling. Ben Bearse of 808 Broadway, Brooklyn, was the first to land a bluefish, a ten pounder, taken on a wood squid. For some reason the metal squids failed to get a strike. Several blues were taken by those on board.

Humpback sea bass were caught, in addition to fluke and blackfish on Sunday's trip to the deep sea grounds. K. Como of the Bronx won the pool with a 10% pound fluke.

Protests Against Size of License Card.
I believe that we who reside to note to make, I refer to the size of the identification card that is being issued. It is entirely too large to carry conveniently, especially while fishing in swift water, for an occasional ducking is not unusual. I believe a small metal tag could be substituted with far better results.

BOD AND GUN.

Beam Trawling in Local Waters.

Beam trawiers are ripping away the feeding grounds and scooping up all the fish all along the Long Island shores. Where are the fish protectors?

Many people who see these things tell the writer that the violations are increasing. As a matter of fact, you may see a fleet of trawiers tied up to the built-head at Manhattan Beach any day.

Can anything be done, or have we got to let them work their own sweet will?
